You will not want to miss this beautiful late-Victorian 3 bedroom, 3 bathroom home just steps away from the Missouri Botanical Garden.

Built in 1896, you will find heaps of charm including 9 foot ceilings, dark-stained hardwood floors, two fireplaces and functional pocket doors. The main floor features a grand living room, a full bathroom, a large dining room and a bright eat-in kitchen and hearth room with white cabinetry and new countertops.

From the kitchen, you can step out to your private back garden and patio for relaxing or entertaining. The second floor features four rooms including a master suite which has two closets and a private balcony. The additional three rooms
